

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	i
Introduction	iii
Part One: The Corporations of Washington and Georgetown (1791-1871)	1
Chapter 1 Farm Animals.....	3
Summary of laws (Colonial-era – Georgetown – City of Washington) – Narrative
Chapter 2 Dogs.....	10
Summary of laws (Georgetown – City of Washington – Country of Washington) – Narrative
Chapter 3 The Corporation Pound.....	16
William M. Simaker – A proposed dog-pound
Chapter 4 Cruelty to Animals.....	19
Summary of laws (City of Washington – Georgetown)
Chapter 5 Summary	21
Chapter 6 Dead Animals.....	22
Georgetown – City of Washington – County of Washington
Illustrations: One Hundred Years of Advertising Found Animals Early Legal Notices
Part Two: The Territorial and Early Commissioner Period (1871-1912)	27
Chapter 7 The Contractor Pound.....	29
Poundmasters T. Zell Hoover – M. M. Wheelock and Von Essen Essex – J. H. Smith and A. L. G. Mason – Henry Young – A proposed County pound
Chapter 8 Samuel Einstein	37
Chapter 9 Legalities of the Pound Operations	40
Farm animals – Dogs – Jurisdiction – Things the pound didn’t do
Chapter 10 Corralling the Population of Farm Animals.....	44
Early trials – Success – Chickens
Chapter 11 The Dog War.....	49
A typical expedition – Dog tax/tags – Muzzles/Rabies – The mad-dog scare of 1899 – Dog -Owners’ Association of DC – George W. Evans – T. Edward Clark – Muzzling becomes quasi-permanent (orders of 1908, 1910) – Cecil French – Types of muzzles – “At Large”/Leashing – Washington Kennel Club – Bringing the dog population to heel – Private legal actions

Chapter 12	Cats	73
	Washington Cat Club – Voluntary impounding of cats – Mrs. Henry L. West – Cats taken from the streets
Chapter 13	Pound Operations and Miscellany	79
	Poundmaster – Staff – Equipment/Uniforms – Facilities – Conditions – Redemption/ Purchase of animals – Killing animals – Finances – Record-keeping – Jurisdiction – Relationship with MPDC – Legal challenges – Pound mascots and escapees
Chapter 14	Einstein’s Last Years: The Pound as an Institution.....	102
	The pound’s work widely accepted – Einstein honored
Chapter 15	Amazing Acts of the District Pound	105
Chapter 16	Theodore Gatchel and the Establishment of the SPCA.....	108
	Theodore F. Gatchel – Early history of the Society
Chapter 17	SPCA and WHS	112
	New Initiatives (paid agents – abused children) – SPCA becomes WHS – General organization/ operations – The Cruelty Act of 1892 – Operations “on the street” – Relationship with MPDC/ with the city’s population – Makeup of membership/of abusers – Horses vs. dogs/cats vs. autos – Attempt to take over the pound – Horse Owners’ Mutual Protective Association – District Team Owners’ Association
Chapter 18	Summary	131
Chapter 19	Dead Animals.....	133
	Board of Health – F. M. Draney – Patrick Mann – Legalities – Washington Fertilizer Company – Miscellany

- Illustrations:
- The Poundmasters
 - The Poundmen
 - Scenes from the Dog War
 - Boys vs. Dog-Catchers
 - Pet Paraphernalia
 - The Old Pound
 - The New Pound
 - Einstein at Rest
 - WHS Notices
 - WHS Graphics and Shelter
 - The 1895 Municipal Trash Incinerator

Part Three: The Later Commissioner Period (1913-40) 153

Chapter 20	The Pound Under Later Poundmasters.....	154
	Poundmasters Emil Kuhn – George W. Rae – Edgar R. Sando – Walter R. Smith – Frank B. Mark – The 1939 review of animal laws – Farm animals/chickens/homing pigeons/others – Dogs (rabies/muzzling – leashing – act of 1945 – neighboring jurisdictions – licensing) – Cats – Operations – Portraits of the poundmaster’s duties in 1930/in 1941 – The pound in a new era

Chapter 21	The Washington Humane Society (Continued).....	169
	Funding/Membership – Finding new issues – John P. Heap – WHS’s Time of Troubles
Chapter 22	The Early Shelter Movement.....	173
	Shelter vs. pound – Legalities – Cat shelters (Barber Refuge for Animals – Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Buckley – WHS’s replacement shelter – Sarah L. Beckley – Mrs. Beckley’s cat shelter – The Friendly Hand Society) – Dog shelters (Society for Friendless Dogs)
Chapter 23	The Washington Animal Rescue League.....	179
	Establishment – Relationship with WHS – Goals and plans – The first three shelters and their procedures – Killing animals – Abandonment of pets for vacations – Christmas Feast for Horses and other projects – Finances – Governance – Tales from the WARL Shelter – The O Street shelter – WARL/WHs compared – Three adjunct organizations (Washington Herald/ Times-Herald Animal Rescue Service – Maryland-Virginia Animal Rescue League – Tail-Waggers’ Club)
Chapter 24	Later Humane Organizations.....	197
	Humane Education Society – James P. Briggs – Virginia W. Sargent – Church Humane Education League/Animal Relief and Humane Education League/Animal Protective Association – Times Free Animal Clinic – Animal Defense Society – Other humane organizations (suburban – coordinating – ancillary)
Chapter 25	Summary.....	207
Chapter 26	Dead Animals.....	208
	The District takes over the service
	Illustrations: Cat Shelters WARL in the News The WARL Shelter Personages Secondary Shelters
	Afterword: What Happened to Them All	217
	The Pound (legalities/procedures – Animal Allocation Board – Poundmaster John R. King, Jr. – moving the pound – public criticism – Poundmaster Ingrid Newkirk – WHS takes over) – WHS – WARL – HES/NHES – Other humane organizations – Dead animals
	Illustrations: The Facilities Today
	Appendix A: Basics of District of Columbia History	226
	A1: Chronology of District Governance
	A2: Maps of the District, 1854 and 1891
	A3: Population of the District
	Appendix B: Laws Relating to Animal Control.....	230

Appendix C: Statistical Complications 248

- C1: Farms and Farm Animals in the District of Columbia
- C2: Complaints Regarding Hogs, Cows and Fowl
- C3: Animal Capture Statistics
- C4: Dog Tax Receipts, Pound Income (“Pound Fees”), and Pound Expenses
- C5: Animal-Related Arrests/Prosecutions
- C6: Cases of/Deaths from Rabies
- C7: Animal Cruelty Statistics
- C8: Animals in Shelters
- C9: Collection of Dead Animals

Appendix D: Textual and Other Materials 285

- D1: Board of Health Minutes Regarding Animals and the Pound, 1822-78
- D2: Good Newspaper Profiles of the Pound and Its Operations/of WHS Operations/of the WARL Shelter/of the HES Shelter
- D3: Pictures of the Dog Hunt (The Epic of the Raid – Boys vs. Dog-Catchers – Chatter Among the Poundmen)
- D4: The District Pound Compared with Those of Other Cities
- D5: Citizens Write MPDC About Dogs
- D6: The Mythical Origin of Washington’s Stray Animals
- D7: Mark Twain Lampoons the Animal Problem in Washington
- D8: Washington Cats Immortalized (?) in Poetry
- D9: Samples of Cases Handled by SPCA/WHS Agents
- D10: Mrs. Beckley and Her Cat Shelter
- D11: The WARL Shelter Compared with the Pound
- D12: U.S. Capitol Police Deal with Critters (and Humans)
- D13: Tangential Notes on Animals in the District (Dog names and breeds, common and presidential – Buying pets – U.S. Government cats – Rats and cats flee Center Market – Starlings! Pigeons! Squirrels! – In-town hunting – Protecting animals in wartime)
- D14: Sources for Further Research

Bibliography 320

Notes on Sources 328